

“Service is a fitting way to start to heal, unite, and rebuild this country we love.”
 – President Joseph R. Biden, Jr.

The City of Santa Clarita has been recently approved as a Certifying Organization for the President’s Volunteer Service Award (PVSA). This national award was established by President George W. Bush in 2002 to recognize the important role of volunteers in America’s strength and national identity.

PVSA honors individuals whose service positively impacts communities and inspires those around them to volunteer as well. Led by the AmeriCorps and managed in partnership with Points of Light, this program allows Certifying Organizations such as the City of Santa Clarita to recognize their most exceptional volunteers. Those who meet the program’s criteria receive an award package consisting of a certificate, a pin, coin or medallion, and a congratulatory letter from the President of the United States.
